

MOSES HOLDEN.

MARCH 5, 1840.

Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. C. MORRIS, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Moses Holden, report :

That the petitioner states under oath, that he is suffering under a severe rupture occasioned by attempting to cross a brush fence, during an attack made upon his regiment by the enemy at Champlain ; that, in consequence of the injury received on that occasion, he receives a pension at the rate of four dollars per month ; and that by the injury he is more than one-half disabled, and prays Congress to increase his pension.

The petitioner does not specify the amount of his disability, nor does he furnish the committee with any evidence on the subject, other than his own statement. Under these circumstances, your committee do not consider him entitled to relief.

Blair & Rives, printers.

MOSES HOLDEN.

MARCH 5, 1860.

Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. C. Morris, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Moses Holden, report:

That the petitioner states under oath, that he is suffering under a severe rupture occasioned by attempting to cross a brush fence, during an attack made upon his regiment by the enemy at Champion; that, in consequence of the injury received on that occasion, he receives a pension at the rate of four dollars per month; and that by the injury he is more than one-half disabled, and prays Congress to increase his pension.

The petitioner does not specify the amount of his disability, nor does he furnish the committee with any evidence on the subject other than his own statement. Under these circumstances, your committee do not consider him entitled to relief.

Wm. A. Rives, Chairman.